This season, the BPO commemorates the 75th Anniversary of Kleinhans Music Hall – our stunning venue that embraces music in every way. Thanks to the forward-thinking father-son design duo of Eliel and Eero Saarinen, Kleinhans has stood the test of time beautifully. Designated in 1989 as a National Historic Landmark, the hall’s acoustic perfection gives your world-class BPO a sound unlike any other orchestra, with an intimacy found in few concert halls. This year, you’ll find the hall even more appealing with new seats and amenities. Be part of the celebration.
