A Magical Spooktacular

Sun Oct 27, 2:30pm

Todd Craven, conductor

Wands Up! An interactive story of magic in the orchestra comes to life with The Conductor's Spellbook, plus bewitching music from the Harry Potter franchise will make this an enchanting afternoon! Wear your costume and join the parade across the Kleinhans stage.

Jingle Bell Jam

Sun Dec 15, 2:30pm

Todd Craven, conductor

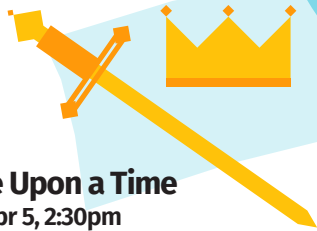

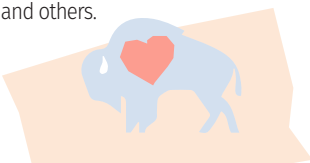

A family tradition including favorite holiday stories past and present. Music from Home Alone, How the Grinch Stole Christmas, and A Charlie Brown Christmas, plus Santa helps conduct and leads the holiday sing-a-long. Pre-concert, make cards for our friends in the military with help from the US Marine Corps.

BuffaLove!

Sun Feb 16, 2:30pm

Todd Craven, conductor

Buffalo is an amazing place to grow up! There are so many different ways to express what we love about our home, and this concert celebrates Buffalo arts with help from the Albright-Knox Art Gallery, Just Buffalo Literary Center, Verve Dance Studio, and others.

Once Upon a Time

Sun Apr 5, 2:30pm

Todd Craven, conductor

Favorite fairytales and fantasies are featured in this imaginative concert that includes music from How to Train Your Dragon, Frozen, and orchestral works like Mother Goose Suite and Billy the Kid. Dress up like your favorite character.

Carnival of the Animals

Sun May 3, 2:30pm

Todd Craven, conductor

Let your imagination run wild with lions and tigers and...kitty cats?? YouTube sensation Nora the Piano Cat's Catcerto, an animal-themed sing-a-long, and local playwright Jon Elston's whimsical, Buffalo-inspired poems interpreting Saint-Saëns' classic Carnival of the Animals.
